

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

Patoss, the Professional Association of Teachers of Students with Specific Learning Difficulties, was formed in 1987 and remains the only professional organisation for teachers in the field of SpLD. Through annual conferences, local groups and publications it works to maintain high standards of knowledge and skills among members, monitoring developments in the areas of research into dyslexia and related disorders, teaching methods and resources.

Patoss aims to promote links with all sectors of education and other professionals with an interest in SpLD. The Association welcomes membership applications from suitably qualified professionals working with learners of any age and at any stage of education or training.

Patoss offers:

- Index of Tutors; Resources List; Membership Handbook
- Legal Helpline run by specialists
- Professional Indemnity Insurance as a benefit for suitably qualified persons
- Regular Newsletters and Bulletins
- Other publications relevant to the field of SpLD
- Web Site linked to other organisations offering help, advice or equipment for dyslexics and teachers; a Bulletin Board open to all
- Annual Conference
- Professional advice on a range of SpLD topics
- Individual membership and Corporate membership for schools, colleges and other organisations with an interest in SpLD

Patoss Aims:

- To establish and maintain the professional status of those qualified to teach students with Specific Learning Difficulties.
- To promote fuller understanding and recognition of SpLD.
- To give a professional corporate response to the department for Education and Skills (DfES) on matters affecting SpLD students.
- To enable members to update and extend their knowledge and skills and to exchange ideas through an annual association conference, bulletins and local groups.
- To promote the continued provision and development of appropriate specialist qualifications in the teaching of students with SpLD.
- To promote links with teachers working with SpLD students in all sectors of education.
- To promote links with other professionals involved in the field of SpLD.
- To maintain a register of the members of the Association.
